Olympian Wayne Seybold Returns to TU

“How the Olympics Prepared Me for Life in Politics and Business”

Wednesday, April 17; Community Members Welcome!

TIFFIN UNIVERSITY, Tiffin, OH— Olympian Wayne Seybold will return to Tiffin University on Wednesday, April 17 to present “How the Olympics Prepared Me for Life in Politics and Business” beginning at 10:30 a.m. in TU’s Main Classroom Building, room 22. The public is invited.

The community is also invited to “Lunch with an Olympian” at 11:30 a.m. in the President’s Dining Room located inside of Cole Dining Hall which is located inside of the Gillmor Student Center. Guests may purchase a $5.75 buffet lunch ticket upon entering the dining hall. Dr. Bonnie Tiell, Professor of Sport Management and organizer of the event suggests registering early because space is limited.

Following lunch, Seybold will travel to Seneca East High School to share history and information on core Olympic values that transcend into everyday life.

About Wayne Seybold

Seybold skated with his sister Natalie in the pairs competition winning five senior international medals. They were two-time national champions in pair’s figure skating and they also competed at the 1988 Calgary Olympic Games. After his competitive career, Seybold entered politics and was mayor of Marion, Indiana for 11 years. He is currently a national director of government business and affairs for a health care company and he owns an ice rink in Marion.
